Key Compliance Reminders

As 2026 begins, employers should review their compliance with federal, state and local employment laws. This review should include:

- Checking that workplace posters are up to date;
- Verifying minimum wage and overtime requirements and updating the wage base limit for withholding;
- Confirming employee leave policies are consistent with federal, state and local leave laws;
- Reviewing any new fair employment law protections and incorporating changes into employee training;
- Confirming workplace policies and procedures are consistent with any new wage and hour requirements;
- Updating the employee handbook and employment policies as necessary;
- Making a schedule for any required workplace training; and
- Reviewing recruitment and compensation practices to ensure they are consistent with any applicable pay transparency laws.
