GGBCC, an affiliate of the National Black Chamber of Commerce, is a statewide chamber, and a pro-business organization that collaborates with local, regional, state-wide, national and international chambers. With a motto of, "Come experience something different...one Chamber in different locations," GGBCC is committed to working together through partnerships and collaborations to make Georgia a greater state by economically empowering and sustaining African American, minority, small, medium, veterans and women owned businesses through entrepreneurship and capitalistic activity.
