

The Fay J. Lindner Center

807

ORGANIZATIONAL CARE COMMITTEE

What is the Organizational Care Committee?

- Who are we?
We are a group of employees who are dedicated to providing employee engagement opportunities to ACLD's valuable workforce.
- Why is the Organizational Care Committee important?
We want to create an environment at ACLD where employees have an authentic voice and a sense of belonging.
- Interested in getting involved in planning activities?
Call Sharon Geiselmann, Employee Development and Engagement Manager at 516.822.0028 ext. 240 or email Sharon at geiselmans@acld.org

How does ACLD show it cares about you as an employee?

Employee Engagement Days

Past celebrations include: Team Spirit Day, Heart Healthy Day, Autism Acceptance Day, Holiday Sweater Day, Pride Day, etc.

Diversity

ACLD is committed to hiring diverse talent and embracing a culture of equality. We encourage our workforce to share their personal reflections on their unique cultural heritage.

Employee Recognition

Employee of the Quarter and Team Service Awards, Quarter Century Club and Longevity Awards, Shout -Out Boards, Staff Spotlights in the ACLD Employee Newsletter – The Limelight.

Bright Idea Box

Share your innovative ideas about how we can improve ACLD...we are listening. Win a $25 gift card if your idea is implemented.

Town Halls Meetings

Join a Town Hall meeting, learn about ACLD initiatives and important organizational updates from ACLD's President/CEO, Mr. Rob Ciatto.

Professional Development

ACLD offers a variety of experiences for staff who would like to continue their education and learn skills to enhance their current roles and grow professionally and personally.

