Images of America: Colchester
book will be signed by the author, Gary Walter

The Colchester Historical Society is restocked with Images of America: Colchester and will be hosting book signings by the author, Gary Walter, on Sundays only, 12:00-2:00 pm throughout March and April at the Colchester History Museum. Meet the author and learn about Colchester's fascinating history.

Images of America: Colchester is part of the well-established Arcadia Publishing series celebrating the history of neighborhoods, towns and cities across America. In this comprehensive book, Gary Walter has incorporated almost 200 historic images to tell the story of Colchester during the late 19th into the mid-20th century.

The Colchester Historical Society is selling the book for $20, underselling the current retail price (including Amazon). Proceeds from the book enable the Society, a non-profit organization, to operate a free museum and offer diverse programs about Colchester history. Can't get to the museum? We will mail your book for an additional $3 for postage, for a total of $23.

Get your copy of Images of America: Colchester at the Colchester History Museum, now only on Sundays, 12-2 pm during March and April. The Colchester History Museum is located at 24 Linwood Avenue in Colchester, adjacent to the Cragin Memorial Library. There is ample free parking behind the museum and library.
