

Based on "Who Is This Man?" by John Ortberg.

Beginning Wednesday, February 17.

Two thousand years ago the Roman Empire condemned and killed a Jewish carpenter named Jesus. Today the world has been remade in his image. Jesus' teachings have transformed our beliefs about women, children, marriage, sex, human dignity, honor, humility, forgiveness...the list goes on and on. Most of what we think of as Western values began with Him. Who was He? How did this happen? Because He changed everything!
