LIGHTING OF THE CANDLE OF LOVE

Jane and Ed Burgstaler

People aged two to eighty-two were asked, "What makes you feel loved?" From the voices of different generations, hear the answers; then ask yourself the same question. When the mic comes to you, you may say a few words or pass it along.

Voice 1: Handwritten notes.

Voice 2: Hot chocolate.

1: Being invited in.

2: Dancing with my partner in the kitchen.

1: Laughing together.

2: Surprise phone calls.

1: Making music with other people.

2: Hugs.

1: Family of faith, what makes you feel loved?

Today we light the candle of love as a reminder that from the very first generation,
God has surrounded us with love.

The fourth Advent candle is lit.

In a lonely world, let this light shine bright. From generation to generation, we are held in God's love. Thanks be to God for that good news. Amen.

SUNG RESPONSE

From Generation to Generation

vs. 4

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, 3/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of four staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the lyrics: 'From gen-er-a-tion to gen-er-a-tion, we have shared the Christ-mas sto-ry'. The second staff contains: 'of a ba-by in a man-ger, who was born in Beth-le-hem.'. The third staff contains: 'Hope is wing-ing, Peace now ring-ing, Joy we're sing-ing, Love he's bring-ing.'. The fourth staff begins with a measure rest marked '13' and contains the lyrics: '4. We see God in one an-oth-er- As we learn to love each other.'.

From gen-er-a-tion to gen-er-a-tion, we have shared the Christ-mas sto-ry of a ba-by in a man-ger, who was born in Beth-le-hem.
Hope is wing-ing, Peace now ring-ing, Joy we're sing-ing, Love he's bring-ing.
13 4. We see God in one an-oth-er- As we learn to love each other.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

One of the greatest gifts and challenges of faith is that we cannot be Christian alone.
Let us lean into the ties that bind and pray to our merciful God.

God of today and tomorrow, when Mary was pregnant and afraid, she ran to her cousin Elizabeth's house.

Elizabeth greeted her with joy and showered blessings on her.

How often do we have the same opportunity?

How often do we leave the door locked and the lights off?

How often do we shower judgments instead of blessings?

Gracious God, forgive us for our failures.

When we see our neighbor, let us see you.

Silence for reflection

This is what we know—God delights in us.

God throws open the door and says, “Come home! There’s room for you here.”

And in that moment, we are blessed, we are forgiven, we are loved.

We are seen, healed, and welcomed.

Rejoice: You are saved by grace.

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WORD

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

God of all, we are a mixed bag of distracted and forlorn, eager and anxious.

We hope that you might move through the obstacle course we build up around our heart. For at the end of the day, all we want is to know that we are not alone, that you are always near.

Pull us close and tell us your story of unbelievable good news.

We are listening. We are grateful. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 1:39-45, 56-58

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child leapt in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, ‘Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord.’

And Mary remained with her for about three months and then returned to her home.

Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 1:46-55

And Mary and Elizabeth sang,

‘My soul magnifies the Lord,

and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.

Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;

for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
 and holy is his name.
 His mercy is for those who fear him
 from generation to generation.
 He has shown strength with his arm;
 he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
 He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
 and lifted up the lowly;
 he has filled the hungry with good things,
 and sent the rich away empty.
 He has helped his servant Israel,
 in remembrance of his mercy,
 according to the promise he made to our ancestors,
 to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.'

Canticle of the Turning

vs. 1 and 4

1 My soul cries out with a joy - ful shout that the God of my heart is great, and my spir - it sings of the won - drous things that you bring to the ones who wait.
 You fixed your sight on your ser - vant's plight, and my weak - ness you did not spurn, so from east to west shall my name be blest. Could the world be a - bout to turn?

Refrain

My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your jus - tice burn. Wipe a - way all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is a - bout to turn.

- (4) Though the nations rage from age to age, we remember who holds us fast.
 God's mercy must deliver us from the conqueror's crushing grasp.
 This saving word that our forebears heard is the promise which holds us bound, till the spear and rod can be crushed by God, who is turning the world around.

As you leave this place, may you go knowing that from generation to generation, we have been claimed and loved.
From generation to generation, God has been by our side.
From generation to generation, we are not alone.
The God of yesterday and of tomorrow

POSTLUDE

Veni, Veni Emmanuel - Ero Cras ("I will come") 18th C. Latin Hymn, 9th C. origin; arr. Michael John Trotta

CPC Choir

O come, O come. "I will come!"

O come, O come, the "I am" that is with us.
Break the bond of the captive people who mourn in exile, deprived of the incarnation of the Father.
Rejoice! Rejoice! The great "I am" will be born for you.

O come, gatherer of all nations. Come to make all whole,
To save your servants from their separateness.
Rejoice! Rejoice! The great "I am" will be born for you.

O come, light of life (Morning Star), to shine on us by your coming.
Dispel the clouds of night, drive away the shadows of death.
Rejoice! Rejoice! The great "I am" will be born for you.

O come, O come. "I WILL COME!"

COFFEE HOUR ANYONE?

The worship committee is suggesting that CPC restart the coffee hour after Sunday service with the guidelines below.

- The individual(s) who host coffee hour will be the only individual(s) serving to minimize handling of items.
- Coffee hour hosts will wear a mask and gloves while serving.
- It is strongly encouraged that items be individually wrapped.
- Disposable cups will be used.

Sign up for a Sunday – in the narthex or by contacting the church office.

The CPC handbells, hand chimes and related equipment used in the worship service were purchased with funds donated initially in 2004 by the Duane Olson family and, also, continuing donations from them and others.

In addition, thank you to Charter House for loaning CPC five music stands and the First Presbyterian Church for loaning CPC a singing bell stick for today.

Have you ever thought about playing handbells? It's fun, and easier than you might think. The Jubellation Choir plays periodically so rehearsals are not weekly but specially scheduled to coincide with performances. You are cordially invited to try it out!

The Fourth Sunday of Advent

FROM GENERATION

We see God in each other

WHERE I SAW GOD LAST

The dimple in your right cheek,
the child playing peek-a-boo from his stroller,
the abuelita who spends her afternoons in the park by 86th; the teenagers on the subway who cannot control their laughter; Neil, my neighbor, who always asks about you, the mother who whispers a dozen times a day, "thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus"; the saxophone player at 42nd street, the poets,
the artists, the garden volunteers; the metro car driver who sticks his head out the window to make sure we're all aboard; the man who gave up his seat on the subway, the kid in the dinosaur pajamas who cannot be convinced they're not school attire; the teachers, the nurses, the taxi cab drivers;
the woman at the end of the block with her yappy dogs and her books in the window, the lovers that lay sprawled out on park blankets, the runners, the daydreamers, the sidewalk chalk artists;
John from upstairs whose favorite flowers are yellow tulips, the Persian man at the grocery who tells me to be safe when I leave, my grandmother in Georgia; my neighbor, the stranger; thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus, thank you, Jesus.
