SUMMIT CODE OF CONDUCT

The KCPC Above the Influence-Kent County Youth Summit offers many unique opportunities and experiences. This conference is designed to promote an atmosphere where chaperones and students support one another with genuine respect. As a student participant, it is your responsibility to help make this summit a positive and enjoyable experience for yourself, fellow students, and chaperones. All participants are expected to demonstrate high standards of personal conduct and to accept personal responsibility and consequences for their actions. Attendees are expected to act honestly, courteously, and considerately towards others, including those in your group and anyone else you come in contact with, such as presenters, peers, volunteers, campus and conference staff, and members of the general public.

The KCPC's goal is to make this Summit an educational, fun, safe, and enjoyable experience for everyone. We ask each individual's cooperation and commitment to the following behavior guidelines in order to meet this goal:

Student attendees will:

- Follow the directions, rules, and regulations established by KCPC staff and chaperones during the conference.
- Not be involved in any way with alcohol, tobacco, e-cigarettes, marijuana, illegal drugs, vandalism, theft, gang-related activity or apparel, weapons/dangerous objects, harassment, or any other type of behavior that is judged by the staff or chaperones to be detrimental to the health, well-being, safety, or reputation of conference participants, the KCPC, KCPC affiliate partners/members, or represented groups.
- Comply with all rules and regulations of any groups/businesses encountered during the trip. The occupied spaces must be left in the same condition as they were found, and the student is responsible (and parent(s)/legal guardian will be billed) for any damage, including vandalism, graffiti, damaged furniture sheets and towels, etc.
- Wear appropriate attire/clothing at all times. Although individual expression is important, please use good judgment when packing for the conference. Ladies should refrain from wearing revealing clothing, including very short skirts/shorts and tops with low necklines or bare midriffs. Men should cover their boxers or briefs and remember to remove their hats when inside. Clothing promoting alcohol, drugs, tobacco, or other distasteful logos is not allowed. Remember, you are representing what the Above the Influence lifestyle is all about, and most importantly, yourself.
