

These FREE online group sessions are provided to the community in partnership with the St. David's Foundation COVID Recovery Fund.

Austin Child Guidance Center has provided comprehensive mental health care for Central Texas children and families since 1951.

ACGC provides individual/family therapy, group sessions, a walk-in clinic, psychological assessments, psychiatric care, case management, and community education services.

For more information call (512) 451-2242 or email info@austinchildguidance.org.

 Austin Child Guidance Center

Free.
Online.
Group Therapy
PRESENTED BY AUSTIN
CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER

Issues of Grief Teen Group

Thursdays, 5:00-6:30 PM CT
June 3rd - July 29th (skips the week of June 24th)

This 8-week group is for teens who experienced loss or death of a loved one, such as a relative, friend, or pet. Teens will learn about the process of grief and how to cope with loss. Caregivers will be invited to parts of the group to learn strategies on how to support their teens through their experience of grief.

Teens ages 13-17

Register at AustinChildGuidance.org or call 512.451.2242, ex. 1102.