

Augsburg College

$5,000

Graduate Fellowship in Leadership Studies Sponsored by DAV

The Center for Leadership Studies will award two fellowships for the 2017-2018 academic year to military personnel/veterans who pursue a Master of Arts in Leadership at Augsburg College.

Receive

$5,000 in tuition assistance within the academic year, $2,500 for the first term and $2,500 for the second term.

Goal

The goal is to support military personnel/veterans who are transitioning their military skills into civilian leadership skills.

Project

Projects or research accomplished within the leadership program should benefit veterans' issues and be shared with a public presentation at a DAV event.

Work Full Time and Attend Augsburg

Earn a master's degree in leadership in two years while working full time. Most courses are held on a Saturday schedule.

Apply

Call Dr. Alan Tuchtenhagen at 612-330-1333 or email tuchten@augsburg.edu for more information and application details.

The fellowships are made possible through a grant from the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Foundation of MN & Chapter 1 of the Minnesota DAV. DAV MN is a membership organization for women and men disabled in our nation's defense.

AUGSBURG COLLEGE

2211 Riverside Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55454

Graduate Studies
at AUGSBURG

Earn a Master of Arts in Leadership in two years
while working full time

$5,000 Fellowship
Offered by Disabled
American Veterans

MA in Leadership
Information
www.augsburg.edu/mal/

