Mt. Diablo Peace & Justice Center's

17th ANNUAL PEACE & JUSTICE AWARDS DINNER!

LIVE MUSIC provided by LA PEÑA CHORUS!

FULL-COURSE PALESTINIAN DINNER provided by AMALFI FUSION RESTAURANT!

Saturday, November 22nd, 5:30—8:30 PM
Creekside Commons, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette, California

THIS YEAR WE HONOR:

JULIE TANG, San Francisco Superior Court Judge (retired) for her tireless work defending the Asian community when under attack and promoting a US foreign policy of peace and diplomacy.

CARLA SCHICK, social justice activist, longtime teacher (retired), poet, and mentor. Carla sought to create learning environments that engage students by encouraging inquiry. She advocated for ethnic studies and LGBTQ curriculums, and currently continues some 40 years of working in solidarity with the free Palestine movement.

CONTRA COSTA IMMIGRANT RIGHTS ALLIANCE, a coalition of community, faith, advocacy, and immigrant-led organizations that seek to welcome and protect immigrant residents of Contra Costa County. SERGIO JAIME LOPEZ will represent CCIRA at the event.

TICKETS: $70 pp / $60 pp (Peace Center Members) / $400 reserved table for 8
Purchase online: http://ourpeacecenter.org or use QR code
More info? (925) 933-7850 or info@ourpeacecenter.org

Artwork: In an Open Hand Peace is Found by Mallory Craig-Karim, Acalanes HS Winner 2010, Art & Writing Challenge