

NOTO Conservation Award Nomination Form

NOTO's Conservation Award is awarded to a NOTO member who has contributed substantially to conservation. Here are some examples of activities that a nominee could be, or has been involved in:

- They have changed their business model to incorporate their own camp conservation fishing rules over and above the Provincial fishing regulations
- They have volunteered for their local fishery or wildlife stewardship or advisory groups
- They have volunteered in initiatives to promote healthy fish or wildlife populations
- They have sat on Government initiated committees, advisory groups for the betterment of the environment, wildlife and/or fish species
- They have hosted fish or wildlife studies at their place of business
