

NBJC Black Track @ Creating Change

The Creating Change Conference is an excellent opportunity to build and deepen relationships with people from across the nation. We hope to see you at NBJC's sponsored events during Creating Change, AND we've taken it upon ourselves to provide you with a tip sheet of other Black-centered or Black-impacted events during the conference. We affectionately call this offering of events the Black Track @ Creating Change.

Note: Events with an asterisk are not explicitly Black, but in line with NBJC's work and deeply affects Black LGBTQ+/SGL people
