

X67 Community Association HOA Notice of Disclaimer: Information provided in this Newsletter is given to management by residents in the building. Please be advised that all information provided is just that, information, and should not be deemed to be recommendations, suggestions, comments, referrals or otherwise of the Association, its Board of Directors, its employees and/or its agents. Rather the information contained in this Newsletter or in any other correspondence sent or distributed to X67 Community Association members from or on behalf of X67 Community Association are not made, supported nor endorsed by or on behalf of the X67 Community Association. Each X67 member or resident expressly assumes any and all risk and/or responsibility for his or her decisions, actions, conduct, and/or the consequences of same which may arise or result from reviewing and taking action based on any content contained in this Newsletter and/or other correspondence from the Association including, without limitation, recommendations or suggestions regarding local or preferred businesses, or vendors as suggested by X67 residents which may be provided by X67 Community Association. X67 HOA assumes no responsibility for any of the content contained herein, and each X67 member and/or resident should independently research and evaluate all recommended businesses, activities, locations or otherwise which are referenced or contained in this Newsletter and/or correspondence.