

Lorraine Bergman an Arizona native; is the President and CEO of Caliente Construction Inc. Under her leadership, Caliente has become one of Arizona's top 50 largest construction companies and the 5th largest woman-owned company. Lorraine's passion is serving her industry and community. A few of her notable accomplishments include Past President of the Arizona Builders Alliance; 2016 President of the Arizona chapter of the Center for Job Order Excellence, past member, CEOs Against Cancer, and co-founder of Advancing Women in Construction. She is a is a two-time Athena Award nominee; winner of the ACE Most Admired CEO, ASU Spirit of Enterprise award and Construction Financial Managers Association Construction Executive of the Year and was named a 2021 Industry Leader of Arizona for Commercial Real Estate.

She is currently a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership, Lambda Alpha International (LAI), NAIWIC; a Board Member of Arizona Business Alliance, Phoenix Community Alliance, and the Arizona State Director for the National AGC.