

KEVIN M. ESTEVEZ is a member of Holden Willits, PLC. His practice focuses on construction law and business litigation. He has represented owners, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, architects, engineers, sureties, and real estate developers. Mr. Estevez is the author of Arizona Construction and the Law—a legal blog covering construction law in Arizona. He graduated, cum laude, from the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, was the Business Editor of the Arizona State Law Journal, and earned a B.S., magna cum laude, in business administration from the University of Arizona, with double majors in finance and marketing. Mr. Estevez is an AV rated attorney with Martindale Hubbell and has been selected for recognition by Southwest Super Lawyers and Arizona's Finest Lawyers. He is a current board member and former president of the Scottsdale Bar Association.