

Located in the heart of the country's most productive agricultural region, Buckman-Mitchell has specialized in providing insurance to agricultural concerns for 100 years. The agency specializes IN all agricultural insurance - from farm policies to commercial policies to crop insurance.

Buckman-Mitchell serves its clientele with specialized programs for the packers and shippers of Sunkist Growers and the California Fresh Fruit Association in addition to a program designed for the SPECIALIZED NEEDS OF DAIRY FARMS.

From a crop insurance perspective, the Buckman-Mitchell staff includes those who have farmed and those who have been involved in the intricacies of the government program. We have an understanding of how to align the farmer's needs with the government's programs.

Buckman-Mitchell has been a leader in the California AGRICULTURAL Leadership program. The agency annually raises about $100,000 with its insurance carriers to support the Ag Leadership Program.
