

NEW!

Technical Degree: Sustainable Residential Building Systems

About:

- prepares students for careers in the residential building industry with a green building emphasis
- learn how to operate and safely maintain all tools used in residential construction
- learn how to construct various residential building components from blueprints and production documents

Graduates can:

- have the opportunity to begin employment in the building industry or apply for apprenticeships
- find employment in
 - entry-level carpenter, construction laborer, various trades helper, apprenticeship in carpentry, masonry, HVAC, and plumbing

Apply: www.menominee.edu

For more information, contact the Admissions Office at 715-799-6226, ext. 3051 or at admissions@menominee.edu

College of
Menominee
Nation
KESHENA • GREEN BAY