Each box will contain proteins, produce, and shelf-stable items, sourced from Indigenous and non-Indigenous local producers and will be representative of traditional foods whenever possible. The average box will be 20 pounds. The contents of the boxes will change for each distribution based on what is available seasonally for the given distribution week.

PLEASE NOTE: Food provided is for Tribal members, 55 years and older. This project is funded by the Intertribal Local Food Purchasing Agreement and the FY26 Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection's Tribal Elder Community Food Box Grant.
