"Love one another" (2 John 5)

Grace and peace to you from God our Creator and Jesus who gives us a new commandment to love one another. This month we celebrate Valentine's day, a day to show love. Often it is romantic love that we are encouraged to share. How do we live into the love that Jesus shows us, and calls us to live into? Jesus explains love by caring for those who are cast aside, those whom struggle. Jesus seeks to teach those who are unaware, and open his hand to those who are in need of someone to walk with.

Jesus never seeks to force people to believe, or accept him, rather he seeks to offer something so profound, so overwhelming, that the only response is to be enveloped by this love. Jesus speaks this commandment to the disciples in John's gospel at the close of the Last Supper <sup>34</sup>I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (John 13:34-35)." The power of the final statement about how people will know us, is not by who we exclude, how loud we are against others, or how 'righteous' we believe we are. Rather the central way that people know we are followers of Christ is by our love for others. Jesus shows his disciples what it means to care for others, throughout his ministry, and in the last days he shows them and us, exactly the kind of love he talks about. From the institution of the Lord's Supper, to washing the disciples' feet (even Peter's, even Judas' feet) and then handing himself over to the cross.

This love doesn't exclude not agreeing with one another, this love doesn't exclude struggling with one another. This love doesn't exclude all our 'baggage' that we carry or our own flawed sense of God's perfect love for us all. What it includes however is the ability to offer forgiveness, to see each other as created in the image of God, and opportunities to grow together through dialogue and prayer. When we do this we become counter cultural, and move more fully into the understanding of this Love that Jesus gives us, and invites us to share with others.

I often tell people that the greatest strength of AELC is the breadth of understanding, and then state that the greatest challenge for AELC is our broad understanding. We are a community that sometimes struggles with each other, and that's ok. It's important, it helps us grow, but part of that growth is a willingness to come together to talk with one another, to worship together, to hear of God's love for one another and to share that love with one another, even and especially when we are struggling with one another.

So how do we respond? How do we engage with one another? How do we answer Jesus' commandment to love one another? How do we live into our mission of inviting ourselves and others to "Come, to know the Love of God: Go, to make it known?" Yes, these are challenging questions, but they are questions that we as a community rooted in the "Love of God" can struggle in together. As we move through this month, and look towards the season of Lent, I invite you to be in conversation with each other, to see the Image of God in each other, and to seek ways to show that selfless love that Jesus gives to us, freely with all people.

Peace in Christ, who offers us perfect love.

Pastor Zach

Prepare Wisely: Estate Strategy Essentials

No matter your wealth or status, you have an estate. And all estates have something in common—you can't take it with you when you die. Having a strategy in place can make things easier for your family after you're gone. At this workshop:

- Explore assets – whether they be financial or physical.
- Understand beneficiaries – family or organizations you care about.
- Gain tools to help put your plans into action.

This workshop will be held at Allegheny Evangelical Lutheran Church on Sunday, February 13 at 9:30 am. It's hosted by Suzanne M Rigg and Mark Dobroskey. No products will be sold. Thrivent and its financial professionals do not provide legal, accounting or tax advice. Consult your attorney or tax professional.

Happy Valentines Day! Say "I love you" with one of the many different recipes on the Equal Exchange website. There are so many to choose from, and nothing says "I care" more than homemade deliciousness! You can peruse the sites many recipe offerings by following the link <https://blog.equalexchange.coop/recipes/>

February is also Black History Month. Equal Exchange takes a firm stance in supporting social justice not only in faraway lands, but also right here at home, by supporting both the BLM movement, Black Lives Matter - The Equal Exchange Blog, and supporting African American Farmers, Learn the Story of the Black Farmers Who Grow EE Pecans - The Equal Exchange Blog.

While we repeat this often, it is a message worth repeating, purchasing Equal Exchange products not only benefit you and yours but offers support worldwide. Thus, making giving a Valentine from our delicious assortment of goodies twice as nice.

As always, thank you for your support,
Connie and Janine

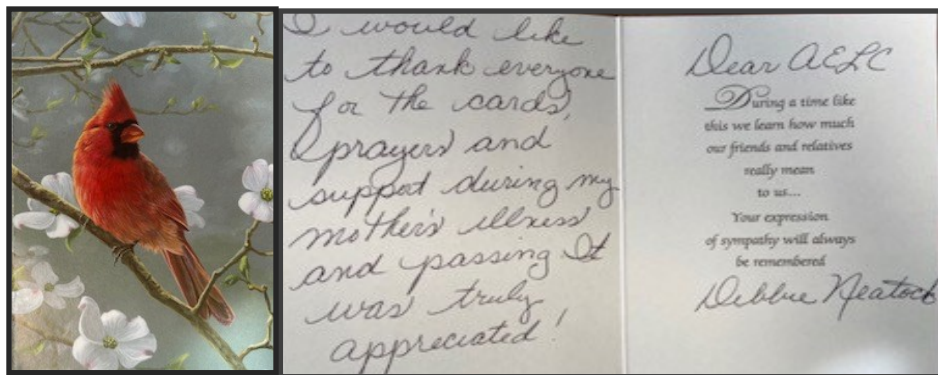

Thank you all for your continued excitement and support of our World Hunger Auction and Raffle event. After many conversations and prayerful consideration, the planning committee has made the decision to postpone the event for the time being. We recognize the importance of this event and want to see it take place safely and in celebratory manner. We recognize that it is our call as a committee to serve our community and keep all members of that community safe and healthy. At this point, the best way we feel to do that is to wait until our Covid-19 numbers are significantly lower. Donations will continue to be received so we are ready to host our event as soon as we can safely come together in celebration and maybe a little bit of competition.

We on the World Hunger Auction and Raffle planning committee continue to thank you for your support and excitement in preparation for our event!

Looking for Donations: We are still looking for donations for our World Hunger Event. We are looking for baskets to include in our raffle opportunities as well as larger items for our silent auction. If you are willing or interested in donating in any way, please contact Kristen Kelly at youthd@aelc.org. Get creative! If you have a talent you'd like to donate (such as baking a cake, or offering your babysitting services) we'd love to showcase and auction those off as well!

To AELC,

Thank you for the love and support given to Karen in her 20 year battle with dermatomyositis complicated with her accident 14 years ago.

Thank you for all the cards, donations and meals during our time of grief.

Rod & Kathy High
Peace be with you.

Mid-week Lenten Worship/Study

Starting March 9 we will be gathering together for a time of worship and discussion during the season of Lent. Our theme this year will be "Walking Humbly With God." This comes from the third part of God's call to everyone in Micah 6:8 "He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" We will consider how we see this language in today's world and how we as individuals and community experience this.

Bring on the Soup

We will again be hosting our Mid-week Lenten worship/study online, and we are looking for soup recipes to share and highlight for each week. If you have a soup recipe that you would like to share, and a story behind it if you have one. Please email it to Pastor Zach (pastorzach@aelc.org) By Feb 21st. One soup will be highlighted each week, and everyone will be encouraged to make the same soup to share 'together.' A couple of bread recipes will also be included. Join us to be nourished body, mind, and spirit during the season of Lent.

A Date to Remember

Did you know that February 2, 2022 commemorates Pastor Zach's 15th Anniversary of Ordination? He was ordained at the church he grew up attending, Bethany Lutheran Church in Elmira, NY surrounded by family, friends, and colleagues. Everyone braved the snow to be a part of this special day for Pastor Zach. Then Bishop of the Upstate NY Synod, Marie Jerge, presided over the service with many others having a part in the service to help celebrate Pastor Zach's ordination. It was a very special day indeed! Please wish him a Happy Anniversary as he celebrates his 15th year of ordained ministry and 4 years at AELC!

Dear Friends of Bear Creek Camp,

It's been an incredible year here at camp as we've continued forward into living out the ministry and mission of Bear Creek Camp in an ever changing landscape. You are an important part of an entire community of supporters that have carried this organization into the next phase of our work together. Only together can we continue to answer the call of helping individuals and communities explore, celebrate, and grow in God's creation.

I'll never forget the Sunday night bonfire of this past summer's Session One. We had gathered all the campers together as a larger group for the very first time. While learning and singing songs, the woods once again fully echoed with the glee of campers returning to this place so many call their second home. Near the midpoint of that first bonfire, there was a quiet moment to pause where I finally let myself breathe and look around the circle. I saw summer staff in their brand new teal tee-shirts keeping their heads on a swivel making sure their campers were all okay. I saw two campers that hadn't seen each other since camp two years prior holding hands in that way only best camp friends do. I saw nervous first time campers reacting every time a hemlock log would pop in the fire shooting sparks high up in the sky. A lump caught in my throat as the manifestation of all the work our community had done over the past two years came to fruition. And I was grateful as I reflected on the many many supporters that it took to get to that point of sharing in God's love as a community around a simple campfire.

Everything we do at camp throughout the year is building to moments like those opening bonfires. Whether facilities projects, summer staff salaries, food purchases or camperships - every resource we steward is moving us towards living into our shared mission. With your generous support throughout this past year and prayerfully continuing into the future, I look forward to further building the BCC community and welcoming all to experience the power of God within this place.

Thank you once again for your support this year!

Sincerely,

Collin Grooms

AELC Prayer Ministry

Recognizing the importance of prayer for our congregation and the world, AELC has a prayer ministry that communicates needs in various ways. We primarily communicate through a weekly email and listing prayers in the Sunday bulletin. We also have a closed Facebook group to share emergency requests and praises.

To receive the weekly email, send requests, updates or praises - please email Steve Cope at prayerlist@aelc.org or the church office at office@aelc.org. There is a Prayer Request box and slips in the lobby. Feel free to add requests this way; it will be checked weekly. When adding someone to the list, please make sure you have their permission.

Additionally, if you do not use email or social media and would like to be a part of this ministry, please leave your name and phone number with Steve or the office and we will communicate with you in a way that works for you!
