OCTOBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

"Come, to know the love of God. Go, to make it known."

Grace and peace to you from God our Creator and Jesus, who offers us grace and truth. This month we celebrate the Reformation, starting over 500 years ago with Luther and others who sought reform in the church. It was not an easy process and those in power sought to keep things the same. Luther was exiled, and had a bounty on his head by the church leaders. Throughout his life, Luther sought to teach the Bible to everyone, to open the scriptures, so that anyone who was able to read was able to have access to the Word of God. We are part of that continued tradition of inviting others to a closer relationship with God, through community and the Word. I am always reminded that as Lutherans we are part of a church that is always reforming (the 'tion' in reformation means a continuing action).

Part of our common history both as Lutherans and members at AELC, is the reminder that we are called to serve God throughout our daily lives. We are reminded from Luther that: "What you do in your house is worth as much as if you did it up in heaven for our Lord God. We should accustom ourselves to think of our position and work as sacred and well-pleasing to God, not on account of the position and work, but on account of the word and faith from which the obedience and the work flow." Living out our faith in each moment of our lives we serve God daily.

In September we joined with our siblings in Christ across the nation to engage our community during “God’s Work, Our hands” Sunday. We gathered to share the gifts that God has given to use for others, and while it rained, it didn’t stop us from impacting many lives through our service, that stretched beyond that day. We continue to gather, to serve, to learn to worship to live in community this month, as followers of Jesus who came to serve. As we celebrate this month the Reformation and Confirmation of some of our young people, we continue to hear God’s call for us to live into our faith daily. May God guide us this month and always to invite and go out to share the Love of God in our daily lives.

Peace in Christ, Pastor Zach

What’s your favorite Bible passage? Why?

These are the two questions we want to talk about during our next gathering on Nov 6 at 9am. Breakfast will again be provided. If you know the idea of the passage but not the chapter and verse that’s okay too, we can help you figure that out. Join us to share in this second event. See you on Nov 6, as we continue to learn about each other and who AELC is.

UPCOMING FALL BLOOD DRIVE

We had originally scheduled the AELC blood drive for October 29, 2022. However, because Miller-Keystone is so severely understaffed, they cannot do it that day and are not scheduling any new offsite drives at this time.

The alternative is to schedule an “Allegheny Lutheran” week at the Miller-Keystone Center, 2745a Leisczs Bridge Rd, Reading which is just off Rte. 183 about two miles north of the 222 airport exit.

Call 610 926-6060 or go to www.giveapint.org to schedule your appointment. If scheduling online, enter Allegheny Lutheran in the “Notes” area. Allegheny Lutheran’s week is the week of October 24 – October 29. You can make an appointment for any day of that week and AELC will get credit for it. This gives you much more flexibility in scheduling, but a little more travel time. It does provide a great excuse to go out to eat before or after donating while doing a great deed for mankind.

Donate a pint before any Halloween vampires get it.

If you have any questions, contact Bill Baxter at 610 775-3763 or dandbbax@gmail.com.

Speaking of bounty, it is also time to replenish all of the goodies at the stand. Have you seen a product you would like to try? Let us know, and we'll order some for the stand. Noticed an interesting flavor of chocolate, coffee, or tea that we don't currently carry? Please send us an email! We are happy and willing to honor any special requests. We will be holding our first Chronic Pain Support Group. This group is for anyone who is suffering from any type of pain. We will be providing support through both in person and over video/zoom. There's an emotional side to chronic pain. You may need a shoulder to cry on or someone to talk to. You need support. Having someone to talk to that are dealing with the same pain as you can be a sense of comfort and support.

This group offers experience, strength, and hope for people with chronic pain.

In August our expenses exceeded income by about $11,800. A rough financial month was anticipated because of there being three paydays. Fortunately, July's $7300 surplus helped to offset August's results.

For the first eight months of the year, income trails expenses by $27,000.

The General Fund checkbook balance at the end of August was about $20,400 including the balance of the PPP funds.

AELC Prayer Ministry

Recognizing the importance of prayer for our congregation and the world, AELC has a prayer ministry that communicates needs in various ways. We primarily communicate through a weekly email and listing prayers in the Sunday bulletin. We also have a closed Facebook group to share emergency requests and praises.

To receive the weekly email, send requests, updates or praises - please email Steve Cope at prayerlist@aelc.org or the church office at office@aelc.org. You may also call the church office to leave a request. If you would like to be a part of the Facebook group, please let Steve know so you can be added.

There is a Prayer Request box and slips in the lobby. Feel free to add requests this way; it will be checked weekly. When adding someone to the list, please make sure you have their permission.

Additionally, if you do not use email or social media and would like to be a part of this ministry, please leave your name and phone number with Steve or the office and we will communicate with you in a way that works

GROUND'S CLEAN-UP MAINTENANCE BOOK

The Property Committee has created a book for you to sign-up to clean a specific grounds area and to maintain on an on-going basis. Please look through the book on the table in the lobby and if you have an interest in keeping the grounds in good shape or just enjoy working outside, pick an area and sign your name. When you and your group want to do the clean-up/maintenance is whatever works best for you and your time schedule. If you have questions or concerns, please contact a member of the property committee.
