

Online Small Group Bible Study Opportunities

Since our stay-at-home order has been extended, we have enlarged our online Bible Study using the online Zoom application. Several people have volunteered to host groups, these five groups are noted below. The starting dates for these groups will be next week.

MARI'S GROUP: Mari Smith will host a Zoom meeting on Tuesdays at 2:30 pm. The topic is: Weaving the Bible into Daily Life - a group for needleworkers (knitters, crocheters, weavers, quilters, sewers, embroiderers and others crafting in the fiber arts...) discussing the fiber arts mentioned in the Bible, the spirituality of creating, and how to share the good news with others (possibly through our art and work). If you are interested or have questions, please contact Mari Smith at mssmith468@gmail.com or by phone at 847-913-3485.

TOM'S GROUP: Tom Braun (president of the congregation): will host a Zoom meeting on Thursdays at 7:00 pm. The topic will be the book of Daniel. This six week study will focus on the integrity of Daniel's life and how it relates to us in 2020. Study guide materials will be provided to you by Tom. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Tom Braun at tjbraun54@gmail.com

NANCY and GARY'S GROUP: Nancy and Gary Mayor: The Mayor's will host a Zoom meeting on Thursdays at 7:00 pm. The topic is "The Wired Word", a current event topical study that varies week to week. Each week there are several Bible passages referenced for discussion. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Nancy Mayor at: nancy.mayor@gmail.com

TOM and VICKI'S GROUP: Tom and Vicki Wykert: The Wykert's will host a Zoom meeting on Mondays at 4:30. The topic will be an Online Being Challenge by Zach Zehnder, an extension of the Red Letter Challenge. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Tom Wykert at: t.wykert@sjlagrange.com

REBECCA'S GROUP: Rebecca Schiltz: Rebecca will host a Zoom meeting on Saturdays at 9:30 am. This class will be studying the continuation of Zack Sanders Red Letter Challenge called "Being". If you are interested, please contact Rebecca Schiltz at: schiltz4@sbcglobal.net
