**Listen to Utah Episcopalian**

The Diocese of Utah launched a new podcast "The Utah Epodcopalians," designed to reflect on the Episcopal Church in our unique land of Utah.

There are two episodes available at episcopal-ut.org/podcast, as well as on Podbean, Spotify and iTunes.

The debut episode, "First Visit to Church" explores how visitors view the church and how the church can do better in explaining its inclusivity as well as its ritualistic worship. Cody Hatch, who is new to St. Mark's Cathedral in Salt Lake City, Utah, joins Bishop Scott Hayashi in discovering it is a church that welcomes questions, those who are not sure what they believe, and those transitioning from other faiths.

The second episode, "Holy Week" aims to explain the many worship services of Holy Week in about 40 minutes. Bishop Scott Hayashi offers insight into each service and how the experiences and traditions of each one lead up to the celebration of Easter.

Utah Epodcopalians will be released on a bi-monthly basis. If you have feedback, or ideas for topics/guests, please email Craig Wirth or Halee Oliver.
