A WORD FROM ...

Barry Arbuckle, Ph.D.
President and CEO, MemorialCare

Healthcare and every industry across our country are grappling with unprecedented workforce challenges. From The Great Resignation to Quiet Quitting, to high levels of stress and burnout, the needs and desires of today's employees are dynamic, complex and vary by generation.

We've invited David and Jonah Stillman, father and son generational experts and co-founders of GenGuru, to share insightful research on the differences between the generations and what organizations can expect from them. David and Jonah are the co-authors of Gen Z @ Work, and have appeared on CNN, CNBC, the TODAY Show and in many acclaimed media publications.

We will convene a panel of top minds in healthcare and health benefits to discuss how organizations are addressing today's unique workforce challenges and preparing for those to come. Our distinguished panel will include Milt Ezzard, Vice President of Global Benefits and Mobility at Activision Blizzard; Ashok Subramanian, Founder and CEO at Centivo; Wendy Smith, Senior Vice President and National Leader of the Delivery System Transformation Team at Aon Health & Benefits; and Peter Long, Executive Vice President of Strategy and Health Solutions at Blue Shield of California.

We look forward to seeing you there.
