

ROBBIN NARIKE PRECIADO

Regional President and Managing Director

Union Bank

Robbin Narike Preciado is a managing director and regional president for the Regional Bank at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. She oversees retail banking in Southern California.

Narike Preciado joined Union Bank in 2010 and has more than 30 years' experience in financial services. Prior to Union Bank, she spent 21 years at one of the largest financial institutions in the country, where she distinguished herself in a number of key retail management roles. She also served as national sales manager for the affluent market segment and as a regional president of retail banking in Southern California.

Narike Preciado is the Vice-Chair of the board of the Orange County Business Council and serves on the board of the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce. She has served on the boards of the Little Tokyo Service Center, Orange County Pacific Islander Coalition Alliance (OCAPICA) and PBS SoCal KOCE Public Television. Narike Preciado oversaw the opening of an innovative high school branch in Anaheim at Loara High School, a public-private partnership within the Anaheim Unified High School District, which won a top award in 2016 from the Orange County Business Council.

She has received numerous recognitions, including a nomination for the Women in Business Award from the Orange County Business Journal in 2016, a "2011 Top Women in Retail and Finance" by Women of Color magazine, and a "Top 50 Women in Business" in Santa Barbara, Ventura and San Luis Obispo counties by the Pacific Coast Business Times in 2010. A native of Southern California, Narike Preciado graduated with a degree in economics from UCLA.