Joe Hensley is Market President of Orange County, CA for U.S. Bank. Joe began his banking career at age 18 as a teller while working his way through college. He began his career with US Bank in June of 2007 after working in a similar role in other financial institutions.

Hensley has been in banking 39 years. He held various positions early on in his career in the retail side of the bank which culminated in leading the Consumer Lending Group for a large super regional bank in Louisville, KY. In January 1998, Hensley moved to the commercial side of the bank as a relationship manager. He now serves as the Orange County Market President for U.S. Bank and leads the Commercial Bank for Orange County.

Hensley serves on the board as incoming chair of the Orange County Business Council, also serves as incoming chair for California State University, Fullerton's Board of Governors Philanthropic Foundation, board member for Segerstrom Center for the Arts, board member for Orange County Housing Trust, and John Wayne Air Service Task Force.

Hensley graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Business from McKendree University. He is married to his wife Lauren and is the father of 4 children and 4 grandchildren.
