

Household Electronics & Chemical Collection Center (HEC₃)

What to bring

All loads will be evaluated and may be deemed non-household.

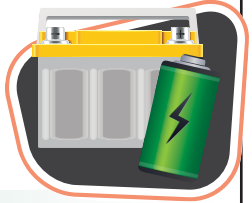

Automotive Products

- Oils and Antifreeze (Limit: 5 gallons)
- Gasoline and Diesel (Limit: 25 gallons)

Batteries (tape terminals)

- Alkaline batteries go in trash
- All others are accepted

Electronics

- Cell phones • Computers
- Items with rechargeable batteries
- TVs (must be whole)
(Limit: 6 TVs, 5 computers)

Household Chemicals

- Adhesives/epoxies • Aerosols
- Cleaners • Cooking oil

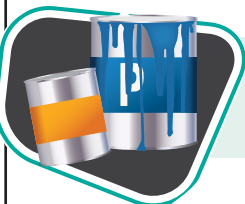

Lawn & Garden Chemicals

- Pesticides/herbicides
- Fertilizers • Sprayers

Mercury-containing Devices

- Thermometers • Thermostats
- Fluorescent bulbs (Limit: 12)

Paint Products

- Paints/stains • Solvents
- (Limit: 20 one-gallon, 5 five-gallon)

Pool & Spa Products

- Chlorine • Muriatic acid
- Cleaners/clarifiers

Signal Flares

- Marine • Road

2855 109th Ave. N.
St. Petersburg

Monday to Saturday, 7 a.m.–5 p.m.
(727) 464-7500

www.pinellascounty.org/solidwaste/hec3

What NOT to bring

Appliances

Fire Extinguishers

Household Electronics such as stereos, DVD players and speakers

Medicine & Sharps

Propane Tanks (over 1 lb.) or other compressed gases

Still not sure what to do with it?

Find out what to do with more than 450 items by visiting www.pinellascounty.org/solidwaste/getridofit

