

Introducing JCC Chicago Winter/Spring Programs at Beth Emet Synagogue

Becoming a Soulful Parent

Join us for a six-week parenting series, grounded in Jewish wisdom and text, to help guide the kind of parent and partner we want to become. Facilitated by Rachel Schwartz, JCC Chicago's Dir. of Social Services.

Wednesdays, 2/5-3/11
7-8:15pm

אַיְכָה
Ayeka

 PJ Library

This program is generously supported by PJ Library Chicago. PJ Library Chicago is a program of JUF Young families - connecting families to Jewish life in Chicago.

JCC Chicago is a non-profit organization inspired by Jewish values, bridging traditions and generations to create a more vibrant, connected community. JCC is a partner with the Jewish United Fund in serving our community. ©2019 JCC Chicago EC140U.12/19

 jccchicago

EARLY CHILDHOOD
DAYCARE | PRESCHOOL

Beth Emet Synagogue | 1224 Dempster St., Evanston | jccchicagoearlychildhood.org/enrichmentbe

Drop in, Tune Up, Play On

Drop in for FREE family play time in our expertly designed infant and toddler play spaces and enjoy music and sensory activities. For infants to 36 mos. with caregiver.

Thursdays, 1/9, 2/13, 3/12, 5/14, 6/4
10-10:45am

Challah Bash

Enjoy preparing for Shabbat by making challah with your favorite toppings while having fun singing and learning songs with your little ones 0-3 years old.

Friday, April 24
10-10:45am

Would You Like Wine with that Whine?

Join Rachel Schwartz, Dir. of Social Services for JCC Chicago, as she discusses managing children's whining and other challenging behaviors.

Get ready to laugh, learn, mingle, and taste Passover wines while playing detective and uncovering the deeper meaning to your child's behavior.

Wednesday, April 22
7-8pm

JCC Chicago Early Childhood is DCFS licensed. License application for Beth Emet Synagogue is pending.