

Announcing New Israeli Dance Mini Course for Beginners

Sponsored by Chicago Israeli Dancing and Congregation Beth Emet

Beth Emet and Chicago Israeli Dancing are pleased to announce a 6 week mini-course for newcomers and/or those who wish to return to Israeli Dancing. Learn basic steps/dances and enjoy the music of Israel in a class geared to you. Gain skills that will make it easy for you to participate in Israeli dancing sessions anywhere.

Why attend?

- You always wanted to try Israeli Dancing but worried you wouldn't be good enough!
- You used to dance and would like to get back into it again!
- You want to join your friends who already love Israeli Dancing!
- Sounds like a great way to exercise, become part of a community, and learn something new!

Learn comfortably with a group of people who are all starting from the same place. Your skills and knowledge will advance steadily during the 6-week course. By the end, you will be ready to participate in the regular Chicago Israeli Dancing Thursday night sessions held each week at Beth Emet.

When: Thursday evenings from 7 - 8pm February 6 - March 12, 2020

Location: Beth Emet, the Free Synagogue, 1224 Dempster Street, Evanston IL

Taught By: Penny Brichta, who has been successfully leading beginner classes in the area for 30+ years and is widely known for effective teaching and making Israeli dance accessible.

Cost: $10 per session (general community members) or...
$5 per session (special rate for Beth Emet members only)
No extra charge to stay for our regular Chicago Israeli Dance Session (8PM-11:30PM during the mini-course)

Register: Pre-registration(required) to ensure your spot (but you can pay as you go)
