Subj: 2026 Sacramento SAR ROTC/JROTC/SEA CADET Annual Report.

Dear President Anderson and Secretary Faulkinbury:

It is with pleasure that I make this report on the activities of the Sacramento SAR relative to the ROTC/JROTC/SEA CADET awards program for the school year 2025/2026. The program this year was led by Compatriots Jim McGraw and Jon Wroten as Co-Chairs.

Outreach was undertaken to a total of 19 different universities, high schools and US Naval Sea Cadet programs as follows. In addition, there was an Enhanced awardee that was selected from the existing High School programs:

-	High School	Bronze Enhanced JROTC Award
2	University Programs	Silver ROTC Award
14	High School JROTC Programs	Bronze JROTC Award
3	US Naval Sea Cadet Divisions	Bronze Good Citizenship Award
19	Total Programs were contacted and included

The results of the outreach were multiple communications with the Commanders and leaders of the respective programs, including communicating the mission and purpose of the Sons of the American Revolution, and the goals and criteria of the respective awards.

Bronze Enhanced Award

Upon submission of the required essays from the participants of the Sacramento SAR chapter level program, judging was conducted and a Sacramento SAR winner was identified. The winner was Cadet Lt. Collin Haughey of the Casa Robles AFJROTC

Program. Cadet Haughey and his mother, and Lt. Col. Kevin Hoduck, USAF (Ret.) the Commander of the Casa Robles JROTC Unit attended the May 20th Sacramento SAR dinner meeting where he was presented with the Bronze Enhanced JROTC ribbon, medal, certificate, and check by program co-chairs Jim McGraw and Jon Wroten.

Haughey advanced to the California SAR state level competition and was selected as the winner at the state level for the Silver Enhanced JROTC Award. Randy Dhindsa, California SAR President attended the May 20th Sacramento SAR dinner meeting and presented Cadet Lt. Haughey with the state level Silver Enhanced JROTC ribbon, medal and certificate and check.
