America 250 SAR Proclamation

I coordinated with the California Society America 250 SAR Committee and the Vice President General (VPG) Western District, Charles B. Smith V. I printed the final version of the SAR Proclamation on parchment paper and placed in a SAR Presentation Folder. The presentation of the SAR Proclamation was listed at the opening of the Scholarship and Awards session of the conference. I was backstage in Colonial uniform and VPG Charles Smith was seated at the VIP Table. At the appointed time, I came from behind the curtain ringing a vintage bell and shouting "Hear Ye Hear Ye". I went to the VIP table and invited the VPG to join me at the Podium. We then invited the APS Executive Director Dr. Regina Shearn to the podium. I introduced the VPG, he gave a few remarks bringing greetings from President General Davis Wright, and then read the SAR Proclamation. Copies of the SAR Proclamation were given to the APS Executive Director and board members.
