November at a Glance

For Parents

"God has opened your eyes to his presence and glory so you could help open the eyes of your children. So capture the opportunities around you to point to him. Don't let a day pass without doing it and don't feel that it's weird to talk about God all the time. He is so pictured by his creation that it is positively weird not to be reminded of him and talk about him all the time. And remember, the teenager needs this as much as the toddler does. Nothing is more important in all of life than this; it really is what makes parents so valuable." Paul David Tripp - Parenting: 14 Gospel Principles That Can Radically Change Your Family

Resources & Highlights

Our November memory verse is Psalm 145:8-13.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The LORD is good to all, and His mercy is over all that He has made. All Your works shall give thanks to You, O LORD, and all Your saints shall bless You! They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom and tell of Your power, to make known to the children of man Your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of Your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations. [The LORD is faithful in all His words and kind in all His works.]

Sundays & Thursdays

Sunday School

Join us for Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. in the Jr. High Room or 11:00 a.m. in the Upper Room. We will share in a message from God's word, fellowship, and small groups. We encourage families to grab a copy of our devotional book, Long Story Short, and have daily devotions in your home.

Thursdays - Thrive

During the school year Thrive meets Thursday evenings from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the Jr. High Room for a time of fellowship, games, and worship! Don't forget to bring your Bible as we spend time in God's Word.
