Chamber hosts their Annual Coffee with the County in Preston

Coffee with the County Builds Connection and Conversation
The Caroline County Chamber of Commerce hosted its annual Coffee with the County on March 30th, bringing together Chamber members and leaders from Caroline County for an informative and engaging morning of conversation and connection. This year's event was graciously hosted by the Town of Preston at the Preston Town Office. Coffee with the County is designed as a relaxed, round-robin conversation, allowing representatives from county departments to share updates, insights, and upcoming initiatives while engaging directly with the local business community. Attendees had the opportunity to ask questions, stay informed, and gain a better understanding of the services and programs supporting Caroline County.

The Chamber extends its sincere thanks to Caroline County leaders, the Town of Preston for hosting, and Craft Bakery for providing delicious refreshments that helped make the event both welcoming and enjoyable.

Events like Coffee with the County continue to strengthen relationships, foster transparency, and encourage meaningful dialogue between local government and the business community. Pictured above: Caroline County Department Heads
