

BIG10+ Postdoc Research Development Series

Writing Confidently: Strategies for Success

Tuesday, August 12

2-4 PM ET / 1-3 PM CT on Zoom

Are you struggling to finish a writing project?

Although writing is a fundamental part of the research process, researchers at all levels struggle to carve out time and space for effective writing. Grounded in academic writing scholarship, this event offers practical approaches to help you shift your perspective and approach writing with renewed confidence. Join us in this workshop to:

- Embrace your identity as a writer to strengthen your self-assurance
- Discover how understanding your audience can make your writing more impactful
- Reflect on what to adjust or refine in your personal writing habits
- Explore proven strategies to overcome procrastination and build momentum

This workshop will be presented by Emily Sferra Kapela, MA, Program Specialist for Career & Professional Development at the University of Michigan Medical School.
