Palliative Care in the Emergency Department: Science of Caring

Kei Ouchi, MD, MPH

Associate Physician, Emergency Department, Harvard Medical School/Brigham and Women's Hospital & Affiliate Faculty, Department of Psychosocial Oncology and Palliative Care, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

Tuesday, Dec. 8 | 12:00PM-1:00PM | Via Zoom

This seminar explores the foundational rationale and clinical necessity of implementing early palliative care within emergency medicine to align critical treatments with individual patient goals. By examining the emergency department (ED) as a pivotal "space in time" for patients facing crises, the seminar highlights recent key studies and outlines future directions.
