The Archdiocese of Philadelphia and Immaculata University have partnered to provide elementary school educators an opportunity to pursue their M.A. in educational leadership. This offering is supported by funding received by the Archdiocese from the Sullivan Foundation and a tuition discount from Immaculata.

- » Tuition offered at a 55% discount from Immaculata. Additional financial support provided by the Archdiocese pending Archdiocesan funding.
- » Take classes online, with a mix of synchronous and asynchronous instruction.
- » Begin fall 2025 and take one 7-week course per semester—fall, spring and summer.
- » Complete your degree in approximately 3 years.
- » Learn in community with a cohort of Catholic school educators.

Immaculata's M.A. curriculum has been customized to address the unique needs of Catholic schools, such as developing Catholic identity, school governance and board relations and the school budget process. You will take the following accelerated courses, 30 credits total:

- » Instructional Needs of ELL
- » Contemporary Professional Ethics
- » Administration
- » Curriculum and Instruction
- » Methods of Research
- » Supervision
- » School Law
- » Interpersonal Relations
- » Introduction to Special Education
- » Financial Sustainability
