Lawrence County

2026 Day of Caring

UNITED IS THE WAY

ELLWOOD

- WHAT: United Way Day of Caring unites our region through hands-on service and teamwork. Last year more than 200 volunteers from local schools, businesses, churches, and organizations worked on various projects such as painting, park clean up and organizing projects that helped enhance our health and human services agencies in Lawrence County.
- WHEN: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2026
- WHERE: Non-profit organizations and community facilities throughout the Lawrence Co. area.
- AGENDA: Lawrence County Volunteer Mobilization Effort:
8:00 am - 9:15am: Volunteers will meet at the Cascade Park Pavilion for breakfast and program located at Cascade Park, 1928 E. Washington St., New Castle, PA 16101
9:30am - 4:00pm: Volunteers perform community service tasks.
- *Day of Caring t-shirts will be available for pick up at the Cascade Park Pavilion
- WAYS TO HELP: In addition to participating in volunteer activities, individuals can take food, toys children's books to the Salvation Army, People in Need, Arise or the City Rescue Mission.
- BENEFITS: Day of Caring shows volunteers the needs in our community, how their help matters, and how local non-profits support people. It brings the community together to make a positive impact.
- MORE INFO: Contact the United Way of Lawrence County (724-658-8528) or visit www.uwlawcty.org
