Banned book?

Check out <http://www.ala.org/advocacy/bbooks> for annual lists of the most frequently banned books, banned classics, and more. The Strand has a list of banned books at <https://www.strandbooks.com/banned-books/> and the New York Times has a helpful article at <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/01/16/well/family/the-banned-books-your-child-should-read.html>.

#OwnVoices book?

#OwnVoices is a hashtag created by author Corinne Duyvis to highlight books written by an author who shares a marginalized identity with the protagonist. For example, a book with a protagonist on the autism spectrum written by an author on the autism spectrum is #OwnVoices. For more information about #OwnVoices books, see <http://www.corinneduyvis.net/ownvoices/>.
