

Presenters

Mackenzie Jones, MPH, CHES is a Program Manager for the Montana Disability and Health Program at the Department of Public Health and Human Services and serves as Governing Councilor for APHA's Disability Section.

Isaac Baldry is an advocate and consultant who provides technical support informed by lived experience with disability. He serves on the Rural Institute Consumer Advisory Council and represents the University Center at the National Council on Leadership and Advocacy.

Meg Ann Traci, PhD is a Developmental Psychologist and Research Professor at the University of Montana Rural Institute. She serves as Knowledge Broker for the Research & Training Center on Disability in Rural Communities and Senior Consultant for the Montana Disability and Health Program.

Jed Barton has been a Public Relations, Government Affairs, and Independent Living Specialist at LIFTT since 2010. Drawing on his background in history, journalism, and politics—and his lived experience with disability—he works to support consumers and advance disability advocacy statewide and nationally.

Erin Bley is a Health Education Specialist with the Montana Disability & Health Program and Montana Arthritis Program. She is a certified SAIL Master Trainer and serves on the National Arthritis Steering Committee (2025–2026).