

Confluence 2025: Building Trust in a Changing World through Leadership, Communication and Technology

Abstract Scoring Rubric

	0 = Not Applicable	1 = Poor	2 = Acceptable	3 = Average	4 = Above Average	5 = Excellent
Rubric Consulted - Applicant consulted rubric before continuing with application
Title - Clearly stated; clearly describes content
Brief Presentation Description: Clear description that entices the reader, states the project purpose, and highlights the results/ public health impact. Does not exceed word limit. Uses proper grammar.
Detailed Description: Clear description of the challenge solved or innovation implemented; frameworks or evidence used to inform work; key takeaways/lessons learned. Does not exceed word limit. Uses proper grammar.
Bibliography/Evidence: Provides two to three sources, data , or frameworks that guided the project. Submission includes links if relevant.
Measurable Learning Objectives: Lists at least three LSMART learning objectives. One learning objective is overarching and covers entire session.
Engagement Methods: Describes interactive methods that will engage adult learners. Includes specific details (such as: technology engagement tools, discussions, panelists, etc.)
Intended Audience: Describes specific intended audience.
Public Health Impact: Describes the public health impact and/or practice-based implications of session content. Does not exceed sentence limit. Uses proper grammar,
Completion: Completed abstract application fully, did not leave any relevant questions blank.						