

---

Chris Sweetland

President, Chicago Region

As president of the Chicago Region, Chris Sweetland leads the diverse team of financial services professionals at Huntington Bank who are committed to looking out for people and deliver our purpose to make lives better, help businesses thrive, and strengthen the communities we serve.

Sweetland is a financial services veteran with more than 30 years of diverse banking experience, with much of it spent helping middle market companies grow and thrive. He joined Huntington in 2010 and most recently served as Commercial Regional Manager. Prior to joining Huntington, he held various leadership roles within commercial banking at Wintrust Financial and American National Bank & Trust in Chicago.

Active in the community, Sweetland serves on the board of VanderCook College of Music and is a committee member for Chicago Neighborhood Initiatives. He also supports Hesed House in DuPage County.

Sweetland earned his Bachelor of Science in Economics and a Bachelor of Arts in German from Wabash College. He lives in Naperville with his wife and two daughters.