From the East ...

My Brothers,

What a year 2020 is turning out to be! After the new officers took their new positions on January 4th, we all came together and did our first Master Mason degree on January 27th and raised our brothers Jason Disanza and Matthew Sinclair. We were honored to have the District Instructor R. H.: Tom Quay as our lecturer for the evening. He, as always, did an exceptional job.

We have also had our very first meeting of LAMP, the Luminous Assembly of Masonic Philosophers. For the first meeting, we discussed the book Ancient Mysteries and Secret Societies by Manly P. Hall. Five brothers were in attendance and we had a wonderful discussion and planned for next month's meeting. If you would like to join us, please keep an eye on the LAMP section of our website for information about next month's meeting.

Alas, the year has also been one of sadness as well. Our lodge has felt some tremendous losses of those who have been close to us over the years. A few weeks ago we lost Susan Bryce, the beloved wife of W.: Tim Bryce.

Many brothers were in attendance at her memorial service and the sentiments shared during that service were among the most beautiful I have ever heard. A few weeks later we lost Eileen Sammon, beloved wife of the late W.: B.J. Sammon. I attended this service and it was a truly a beautiful service for a woman who loved and touched many in our community. And then tomorrow, sadly, we lay to rest our brother, Dr. Robert "Doc" Simich who was an active and valued member of our lodge. I thank and appreciate all the brothers who are coming tomorrow to bid farewell to Brother Simich.

My brothers, it remains my honor to serve in the East this year. I look forward to our continued labors in the coming months as we continue the further the mission of Dunedin 192.

Fraternally,
Greg Gulick
Worshipful Master

Masonic Ritual

One of the most special beautiful gifts we receive, as Masons, is our ritual. One of the first things we learn is that Freemasonry is a peculiar system of Morality, veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols. There is nothing more allegorical and symbolic than the ritual we present and are presented. A Mason can and should spend his entire life deciphering the secret meaning of the allegory and symbolic messages given to him through the various degrees.

What makes our gentle craft even more amazing is that each man and Mason can draw from the allegory and symbols a completely different meaning. Does this mean that one Brother's meaning is more correct? I believe that our ritual and our fraternal organization was built upon the principle of bringing Light to men and it all begins with Ritual. The road we take after receiving it is up to each and every Brother.

I look forward to continuing my journey with each and every Brother reading this message.

On the Level,

Michael St-Laurent
Senior Warden

A MASTER MASONS POEM

by Pat M. Armstrong

Last night I knelt where Hiram knelt
And took an obligation.

Today, I'm closer to my God
And I'm a Master Mason.

Though heretofore my fellow men
Seemed each one like the other;

Today, I search each one apart
I'm looking for "MY BROTHER."

And as I feel his friendly grip
It fills my heart with pride;

I know that while I'm on the square
That he is on my side.

His footsteps on my errand go,
If I should such require;

His prayers will plead in my behalf;
If I should so desire.

My words are safe within his breast,
As though within my own;

His hand forever at my back,
To help me safely home.

Good counsel whisper in my ear,
And warns of any danger.

My square and compass, Brother
now,
Who once would call me stranger.

I might have lived a normal life
And risen to distinctions;

Without my brothers helping hand,
And fellowship of Masons.

But God, who knows how hard it is
To resist life's temptations,

Knows why I knelt where Hiram knelt; And took an obligation
