From the East ...

Under the Master's Hat

Greetings Brothers,

As we begin to wind down the end of the year, I want to thank all the Officers and Brothers for a fantastic year. We were able to accomplish so much, and it couldn't be possible without each and every one of you.

This year we had our second annual Mother's Day Brunch. We had a new attendee come and share their company. We had our first annual BBQ with Sutherland Lodge, which was a ton of fun, laughs, and good food. For the 19th year, we presented the children of Dunedin Elementary School with 14 new bikes and gift cards through the Bike 4 Books program. In addition, through the generosity of one of our Brothers, we were able to donate a new reading garden. Lastly, the lodge ceiling renovation was completed through the help of so many Brothers giving their time.

From The West

Dear Brothers,

The White House has its foundation in Freemasonry. George Washington laid the cornerstone in a masonic ceremony. But who built the White House?

It is said that slaves built the White House and that is true but it wasn't just them. Free men also labored alongside them. America at the time did not have enough stone masons construct the building. Operative masons were brought from Scotland to work the sandstone into perfect ashlar. And as was their custom, they marked the stones they worked. The blocks were whitewashed and that is how it got its name.

For over 140 years it stood and slowly fell into disrepair and decay. President Harry Truman decided that this could not go on. Things had gone beyond needing repair. The building needed to be reconstructed. The old stone was taken away and a brand new structure erected. What happened to the stones with the mason's marks?

President Truman was a mason and he decided to give a stone from the building to every Grand Lodge in the country. Does the Grand Lodge of Florida have its stone? Or is it lost like the word?

With fraternal
love,

Dave Boddy

From The South

Brethren,

Serving as Junior Warden of Dunedin Lodge No. 192 this past year has been a true pleasure and an honor. The camaraderie, shared purpose, and dedication of our lodge brothers have made every meeting and event a rewarding experience. It's been inspiring to witness the strength of our fellowship and the commitment to our values in action. I'm grateful for the opportunity to contribute and grow alongside such a fine group of Masons.

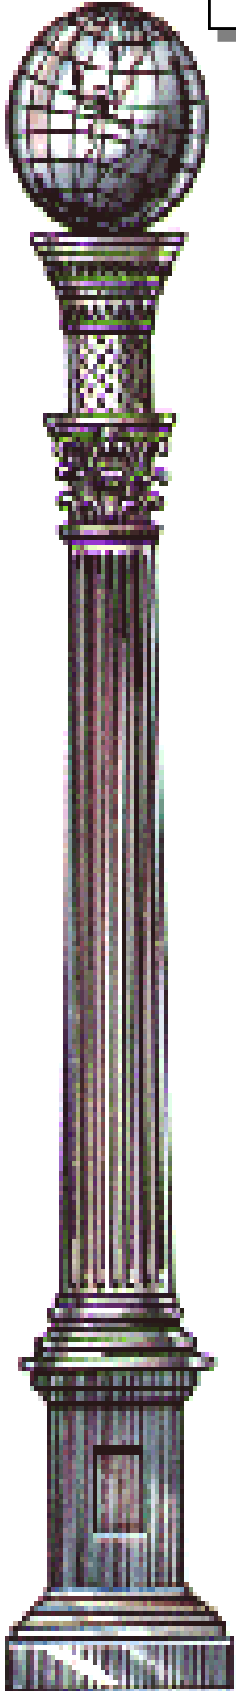

As we close out the year, we look forward to celebrating the season together at our annual Christmas Party on December 13th. Join us for an evening of joy, fellowship, and a delicious holiday menu featuring Prime Rib, seasonal salad, roasted potatoes, vegetable du jour, and a fabulous dessert to top it all off. Let's gather in good cheer and reflect on the blessings of the year past while looking ahead to a bright and meaningful new year.

Fraternally,

Michael Tighe

Junior Warden
