

Don't know if a reminder is needed, but I want to give one to you nonetheless.

EASTER IS IN TWO WEEKS—APRIL 4.

I have finished the Easter message, and the title of the message this year is "Hope Is Not Lost." Hope is one of those things that can be elusive, and without it, it can be debilitating. I can promise you that we rub shoulders with people every day who need a strong dosage of hope. You live beside people who are longing for hope. You know people who are crying out for hope.

This Easter, we will be looking at the HOPE that Christ and His resurrection brings. You won't want to miss it. And you know people around you that need to hear this HOPE filled message as well.

Over the next two weeks I want to encourage you to do your part to invite someone to our Easter services. Make that phone call and invite your friend, neighbor, or co-worker. Send that text or message them on Facebook. Do your part to get this message of Hope to people who need it.

I will end the Promised Land Living series this Sunday. We have agreed that we Don't Need to Settle in the Wilderness. We have dreamed and imagined what life would be like in the Promised Land. Now it is time to cross the river and enter the Promised Land. Hope to see you Sunday!
