Paul, Pioneer

Known For and By God

Paul then stood up in the morning of the Areopagus and said, “People of Athens, I see that in every way you are very religious. For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with the inscription, “To an Unknown God.” So you are ignorant of the very things you worship — and this is what I am going to proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by human hands. And he was not served by human hands, as if he needed anything. Rather, he himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else.

(Acts 17:26)
