FIRST READING: Hebrews 13:1-2, 15-16, 20-21

The New Testament book of Hebrews is not an epistle – it is more of a sermon. It was possibly written by Barnabas: an early missionary companion of Paul. Regardless, Hebrews charge those who are faithful to live by their faith at all places and at all times.

<sup>1</sup>Let mutual love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>15</sup>Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. <sup>16</sup>Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. <sup>20</sup>Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, <sup>21</sup>make you complete in everything good so that you may do his will, working among us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

SECOND READING: James 1:17-18, 22-25

The book of James, much like Hebrews, is concerned about the lack of perseverance in the early Christians. It condemns those who simply heard the Gospel, but haven't done any of the work of the Gospel. Seeing or hearing isn't enough because faith comes by doing.

<sup>17</sup>Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. <sup>18</sup>In fulfillment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures. <sup>22</sup>But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. <sup>23</sup>For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror; <sup>24</sup>for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like. <sup>25</sup>But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act — they will be blessed in their doing.

The Word of the Lord. Praise be to God.

WE WORSHIP GOD THROUGH OUR GIVING

God of power, God of plenty, all things belong to you. We bring your gifts to the table, that all might be fed. Form us into the body of your Beloved, Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

OFFERTORY RESPONSE

“For the Beauty of the Earth” verse 2

#879

Please stand as you are able.

COFESSION OF FORGIVENESS/APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

As a part of St. Mark's upcoming 150-year anniversary celebration (in 2025), we are excited to be creating a commemorative cookbook titled St. Mark's Lutheran Church Recipes and Reminiscences.

This cookbook will be exclusive to St. Mark's by featuring recipes from past members, current recipes from our congregation, and written reminiscences from members on food and fellowship past and present.

The Cookbook Team is reaching out to all members for recipes and written remembrances. The remembrances should be no longer than 50 words and can include anything regarding food ministry and food fellowship both in and outside of the church. One individual can submit many recipes.

Please submit your contributions no later than December of this year. There are three ways to submit your contributions:

1. Email to recipes@stmarkswashington.org
2. Hard copies can be placed in the boxes labeled "Recipes and Reminiscences" located in the Gathering Space and Beckwith Hall.
3. The church office will take your submissions.

Please include your name and a phone number so you can be reached if there are questions regarding your submittal.

THANK YOU!

Does it seem like we're always thanking the property team? Wow - what a really neat problem to have!

This time, we want to thank Nick Ripley and Tom Rigg for the landscape clean up and seeding the west (former weed bed) with grass at our western Burton Street parking lot.

What an improvement, and the neighbors have thanked us!
Thank you!
