I have just completed an in-depth analysis of our district population and where we have clubs and what our percentage of Lions is in the entire district, as well as in the towns we serve.

This analysis was very enlightening. On my Governor visits I have been preaching growth....this is not a new concept, but I would like our membership as a whole to grasp what we are contending with in 4-C1 and that in order for us to be successful we need to change tactics.

First and foremost, this is not intended to be a "brow beating" about membership. I know, as well as your entire district team, that each club is trying to get new members. What I have found in this 3-year journey to Governorship is that we are trying the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result. That folks is the definition of insanity! We need to come up with new and exciting ideas for recruiting ideal members to our clubs.

I will be presenting my findings to you from my analysis at the next District Meeting in Fall River Mills. I would really like a good representation of our membership at this meeting because this issue affects everyone one of us and I want your opinions and ideas.

As many of you have found out through my DG Visitation, I want to hear what YOU have to say and how you feel about issues in your clubs and our district. Open communication is the only way we are going to be successful in this quest.

Thank you for your support and service.

As members of this great Lions Clubs organization, I can confidently say that all of us feel the need to help others. Sometimes we enjoy helping others so much that it is difficult to say 'No' when we are asked. Then, if you are like me, you will take on more than you can handle, and you try to do everything yourself. So why do we do this? Because we feel like we have to make sure the tasks get done correctly. However, this is the root of the issue, being afraid to let go is the root of the issue. Like a small business owner, Lions Club leaders also struggle with the same concept.

Lions, like a small business owner, also has difficulty delegating responsibility. It becomes a challenge to scale effectively because they are afraid to delegate tasks or take on employees to grow their business. The fear comes from the unknown, maybe it's a lack of trust, knowledge or lack of trust in their skill set. Either way, the business owner then carries the burden and the company will either fail or plateau and it stops producing economic growth.

Similar to a Small Business owner, if Lions leadership within your club does not delegate tasks, it becomes a challenge to scale a club or attract members. Since Lions are so open to helping others, delegating tasks to another Lion is easy! When you have too much on your plate with tasks that need to be completed, ask another Lion to help you. I guarantee there is a Lion in your club that has not been asked to help and they are squirming with anxiety waiting to be asked to take on some sort of responsibility.

In conclusion, members in your club look up to your leadership for guidance and responsibilities. Often it is the leaders in the club who end up doing ALL the planning and tasks associated the upcoming project or fundraiser. To exercise the skill set of being a better leader— apply the act of delegating tasks to other members. Give them responsibility and show that you and your club trust their skills set. This will not only create comradery within your club, but it will also create better leaders within District 4-C1.

Let me know if you have any questions,

I have been in Lions almost 4 years and I can tell you that in that time I have heard the Code of Ethics 2 times that I can remember. May I share them with you:

- 1) To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.
- 2) To seek success and to demand all fair remuneration of profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of the unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.
- 3) To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down an other's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.
- 4) Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such a doubt against myself.
- 5) To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed but one another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.
- 6) Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, as to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.
- 7) To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.
- 8) To Be Careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise, to build up and not to destroy.

Let's take a few minutes in our very busy schedules to examine ourselves. Are we holding ourselves to the Code of Ethics in all we do? If not, what can we change, to be all that we are intended to be as Lions?

Thank you for all you do for your communities, towns, cities, state, clubs and for mankind. You are making a difference and the world is a better place because you showed up.

Our District Needs More Proud Lions

Achieving a Proud Lion Award from MD-4 is easy, but very few of our members submit the necessary form to complete the process. This program is especially designed for new Lions, but any Lion can apply after completing the five tasks below within a six-month period. If you have been a club member for a while but haven't yet done these tasks, please do them now and have your club Secretary fill out the Online Achievement Form on the MD-4 website. Then send a copy of the form to District Proud Lion Chair Mary Trancho. A beautiful pin will be awarded to every Lion who completes these tasks:

1. Attend a club Board meeting
2. Participate in a club service or fund-raising project
3. Introduce a prospective member to the club
4. Visit another club (secure a visitation slip)
5. Attend a Zone, Region, District or MD-4 meeting and report back to your club.

The next MD-4 Council of Governors Meeting will be held in Redding at the Red Lion Hotel October 25th thru 27th. Come learn more about how the California Lions work.

Service With A Smile!

Happy Labor Day Lions. I hope your holiday is safe and fun. I imagine many of you were involved in some sort of service this weekend. I had the opportunity to join up with another club and help at their event which was a huge success.

My experience this weekend prompts me to share some ideas with you. If you are holding an event, especially one that is serving over 300 people, take this opportunity to do your club a favor. What a great time to promote Lions, your club, and the service you provide to your community. Wear your vest or polo shirts. Hang your club banner in a prominent place. Set up a public relations table with pictures of your Lions doing fun service projects (and have lots of membership forms). Market your event ahead of time. Put flyers around town, banners in the street. Make it a celebration! When people walk into your event they should know the Lions are Here!

And don't forget to put the upcoming event on MyLion. This will let other Lions know what's going on . . . and who couldn't use an extra pair of helping hands? Then return to MyLion after the event and report on the details. Voila? Easy-Peasey!

We will be having more training for MyLion at the next District meeting. Please bring your device, download the app ahead of time and let's experiment with it.

Hope to see you all in Fall River (McArthur).

Building An Effective Team

In August, our District held a Club Officer Training. It was great to see that many were able to attend, either in person or via live streaming.

One of the initial presentations was on building an effective team, which concluded with review of a list of "11 Commandments for an Enthusiastic Team." As learning is never a "one and done" process, I would like to review one of them, which interestingly mirrors one item in the Lions Code of Ethics. The commandment which I want to highlight is: "Speak positively about each other and about the organization at every opportunity." Similarly, our Lions ethical code reminds us "to be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy."

I'm sure I'm not alone in having the experience of interacting with a co-worker who frequently complains about something or other. This person's negative attitude leaches into the system, interfering with cohesion of the team. In turn, the quality of service to its customers/clients becomes compromised. Remember to be careful in what you say and do. As an effective team member, you are responsible to treat others with grace and kindness.

"Your present circumstances don't determine where you can go; they merely determine where you start."
(Nido Qubein)

The Diabetes Camp at Camp McCumber

A project of

The District 4-C1 Health Foundation

Our Diabetes Camp, which is a great help to the Children and Youth of Northern California, is put on each year during the last full week of June, at beautiful Camp McCumber. For the past several years, we have had approximately 65 campers in attendance. These young people may be the only one in their neighborhood or school to be afflicted with diabetes, and can be subject to ridicule and teasing from their peers. Being able to spend a week with other campers who have the same problems, and the caring counselors, many of whom also have diabetes, gives them a chance to realize they are not alone in this world. Also, with social media what it is today, many of these campers stay in contact with each other all year long between camps. They form a "Family" which allows them full time support and the chance to help each other with problems and concerns.

We charge the campers $375 for the week, which is all inclusive for them, as many would have a difficult time paying more, and some cannot even pay this amount. Since we have a nurse and three counselors for each cabin plus two full time doctors and a few other personnel, the actual cost for the camp ends up being approximately $600 per camper. Obviously, we must make up this shortfall some way.

Our Lions Clubs have been very good, when asked to support a camper from their area, to come through with donations. Also, All Star Football donates their profits to the cause, which all helps. There are seven clubs who have consistently come through with donations without being asked. We would like to recognize the following clubs for their continued assistance over the years.

Chico Breakfast Lions

Enterprise Lions

Gridley Lions

Marysville Lions

Peach Bowl Lions

Redding Host Lions

Weaverville Lions

Thank you all Clubs for your great help for a wonderful cause!!

PDG Maggie Robeson, District GMT Coordinator

Our District hosted a very successful Club Officer Training on August 10 at which 18 of our clubs were represented. It was great to see so many Lions from all around the District. Can't help but mention Fort Jones brought the most club members with 5 attending!

As always, we welcome the newly reported Lions joining 4-C1: Fall River brought in 4 new members -Tim and Mary Jenkins, Jeff Woods, and Jackie Santiago.

Burney brought in David Daugherty, Weaverville added Tracy Ann Seel, and Paradise Host welcomed new member Jolene Moody as well as 7 transfer members from Paradise Business and Professional. We welcome all.

Several clubs are either planning or have had special community events to showcase their projects. This is a great way to get the word out about what your club does!

LCIF News

Our goal this new Lions year is to get 100% participation from all of our District clubs. At the end of 2018-19 our District's club participation was at 37%.

There are many ways to contribute to LCIF—many clubs budget a donation that they send each year until they accrue $1,000 for a club Melvin Jones Fellowship. Many individual Lions contribute either online or through the Campaign 100 Donor Program or the Lions Share Program to receive the donor pin and build toward an individual Melvin Jones. Those of you who were previously 100% Contributing Member Clubs might ask your members to again contribute $20 each since most of you are well on the way to the $1,000 needed to apply for a club Melvin Jones. Currently to be a 100% Contributing Member Club the minimum amount per member is $50.

Thank you to Cottonwood and Shingletown clubs for their donations to the Lions Share program.

Anything your club can donate will be much appreciated. Please contact me if there is any way I can help with forms or info.
