

Frank Lockwood, President

Frank Lockwood moved to Durango with his wife June in 2011, after practicing law and mediation in Hawaii for 30 years. Immediately after the move, he wrote a book entitled Run Your Firm Like a Business, a manual for small law firms published by the American Bar Association. He has published numerous articles in legal magazines and conducted dozens of seminars on efficient business practices of small law firms for state bar associations around the country as well as for the American Bar Association national meetings. He was President of the Family Law Section of the Hawaii State Bar Association as well as President of the Mid Pacific Country Club, where he hosted the newly elected President Barack Obama to play golf.

He was a La Plata County Planning Commissioner for four years, which he says is the most prestigious non-paying job in the county. He is also a political strategist, having advised and managed numerous local candidates for public office.

He was the Executive Director of DATO, The Durango Area Tourism Office, and now serves as President of the Board of Trustees of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Durango. His wife June is a practicing tax CPA. They have two adult daughters and two grandsons.
