

UUFD Share the Plate Nomination Form 2021-2022

Complete this form to nominate an organization or project to receive Share the Plate donations

Nominations for the recipients of our Share the Plate collections are accepted throughout the month of August. The selection of four recipients by the Social Responsibility and Justice Coordinating team will occur in September and the cycle for newly selected recipients will begin in October. Each selected recipient will receive Share the Plate collections for a three-month period. If your nominee is selected as a recipient, you will be asked to work with SRJ Coordinators to invite a representative from the organization to a Sunday service, and to identify individuals from UUFD who are willing to speak about the organization at one of the STP Sundays.

The criteria for selection include:

- *nonprofit organization based in the Four Corners area
- *work is focused on pressing social justice issue
- *preference given to organizations working on UUFD current social justice priorities -Basic Needs, LGBTQIA+, Healing Racism, Immigration, Environment
