

FOSCL Grant Program Information

The Friends of South Carolina Libraries (FOSCL) offers grants in amounts up to $250 for support of library Friends organizations in SC. The grants are intended to assist friends groups with an emphasis on the following purposes:

Expenses related to the formation/incorporation of a group
Expenses related to obtaining 501(c) 3 tax-exempt status for a group
Expenses related to the revitalization of a “dormant” group
Expenses related to the initiation of new or innovative programs/technology designed to foster local library support which are principally sponsored by a library friends group

Friends Groups submitting applications must be a member of FOSCL.

Grant recipients are expected to provide a report at the next Friends of South Carolina Library meeting.

Applications should include all of the following information and a one page narrative.

- Name, mailing address, and phone number of Library/Friends Group
- Name, mailing address, email address (if available), and phone number of person(s) submitting the application
- Number of members of the Local Friends Group for previous year and years in existence
- Budget and/or expenditures of Friends group for previous year
- Proposed Budget (explain how funds will be used in the narrative):

Grant Funds Requested	Other Funds Available	Total
-----------------------	-----------------------	-------
- Signature of Friends Group President and Signature of Library System Director

The one page narrative should include: Goal of the Project, Need(s) to be addressed, Timeline, Proposed Activities, how funds will be used and any clarifying information you feel is needed.

Priority will be given to Friends Groups who have not previously received a grant.

Applications will be reviewed and approved by the FOSCL Board during their quarterly business meetings. Questions concerning the grant program may be emailed to: fosclpresident@gmail.com.

DEADLINE: Applications: May 31, 2024

Initial implementation of grant activities: Before December 31, 2024

Applications should be mailed to Friends of South Carolina Libraries, PO Box 11121, Columbia, SC 29211 or sent to fosclpresident@gmail.com
