

Friends of South Carolina Libraries

Request for Proposal – Program Presenters

Available Dates

Saturday, April 29, 2023, Annual Conference at Aiken Library, downtown Aiken, SC.

We are open to options for future programming dates, both in-person and virtual.

The Friends of South Carolina Libraries (FOSCL) has helped foster, create, and support local Friends of the Library groups since 1988. FOSCL brings Library Friends together for the support of public library services throughout South Carolina.

FOSCL is accepting program proposals for 30-45-minute virtual programming on topics that benefit our membership.

Topics

Including but not limited to nonprofit fundraising, membership, governance, grants, strategic planning, board training and marketing.

Speaker Recognition

FOSCL will promote the programs and speakers on social media, in digital newsletters and direct mailings to membership and through a regional network of state-wide library Friends groups.

Speaker Qualifications

FOSCL welcomes proposals from individuals and group panels with experience and knowledge of nonprofit organizations. Association with libraries, library Friends groups, and library board of trustees is welcome but not required.

Speaker Compensation

Professional Presenters – up to $200

Panel Participant – up to $100

Friends Groups - $50 Donation

Library Employees – Honorarium Gift
